

Health Insights e-Training - Now Available

Accelerating access to analysis for Better Patient Care

Tailored for both new and experienced users, the modular e-training package is designed to enhance, promote and support the use of Health Insights data becoming incorporated as routine for transformation and improvement

Course Design and Content

Modular in design, the course offers flexible learning to help support the understanding of both functionality and application of the platform

1: Introduction Modules

- Understanding how and why the unique features of Health Insights data architecture supports evidence based improvement and transformation

2: Viewer Functionalities

- Viewer Design & Navigation
- South-East Applications
- Understanding different Chart Types available in Health Insights
- Interpreting charts
- Benchmarking

3: Analysis Client Basics (Launcher)

- Understanding Measures and Dimensions
- Creating bespoke Charts
- Interpreting signals to highlight outliers or unusual patterns

✓ Structured Learning

✓ Supporting iterative learning

✓ Modular approach

✓ Available at a time to suit the user

✓ Series of short videos

✓ Supported with additional information

✓ Signposts to further resources

Accessing the Training

Users will access the training through Moodle, a standalone training platform hosted by Lightfoot

Each user will have a unique log in and will be able to navigate the training to suit their needs

You can access the training on the link. Sign in using your nhs.net email address

Access e-Training Here